Canada's Advanced Research and Innovation Network
Le réseau évolué de recherche et d'innovation du Canada

The development of a digital economy strategy is a priority for the Government of Canada. Views are being sought from Canadians including industry stakeholders via an interactive website at www.digitaleconomy.gc.ca. These consultations will help inform the development of a made-in-Canada digital economy strategy that will contribute to a more prosperous and competitive Canada.

Thank you for your support in helping to shape Canada's digital economy strategy.
